

CHAP. 74

Mayor and Common Council of Hyattsville of the legality and result of said election shall be sufficient evidence to the purchaser of said bonds of the legality and result of the election, without further inquiry.

Election to be held.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That for the purposes of said special election, the Mayor and Common Council are hereby authorized and empowered to hold the same at one polling place, or at more than one, as it may elect, and to appoint such judges and clerks of the election as it may deem necessary. The polls shall be open from two P. M. o'clock to seven o'clock P. M., and immediately after the closing of the polls the ballots shall be publicly counted and return made of the count by the judges of election under their hands in a sealed envelope, accompanied with the tally sheets of the count on the evening of the day of election, or the day after, to the Mayor, who shall, as soon thereafter as practicable, convene the Common Council, and in their presence open the return or returns, and verify the count from the tally sheets and announce the result of the election; and if a majority of the ballots cast shall appear by the tally sheets to have been cast in favor of the issue of said bonds the Mayor and Common Council may issue them. The ballots to be used at election in favor of the issue of said bonds shall have printed on them the words: "For the Issue of Electric Light Bonds" or words to that effect; and the ballots to be used in opposition to the issue of said bonds shall have printed on them the words: "Against the Issue of Electric Light Bonds," or words to that effect.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 8, 1906.
