

Section 113. And be it further enacted, That the male citizens of said town of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, being citizens of the United States, and who have resided in said town for six months next thereto preceding, shall elect by ballot on the first Monday in June in each year a Mayor and five Councilmen, who shall serve for two years from the time of their election or until their successors are elected and qualified; in case of death, resignation or failure to qualify of any party elected as Mayor or Councilman, the corporate board (not less than a quorum being present) shall fill such vacancy by the election of some other qualified inhabitant of Grantsville to fill the unexpired term of the party whose place shall thus have become vacant; the Mayor and Councilmen during their official term shall hold no other corporation office, nor be interested in any contract to which the said corporation is a party, or where the money for said contract is to be paid out of the corporation treasury.

CHAP. 423

Mayor and five councilmen to be elected.

Section 114. And be it further enacted, That the Mayor and Council herein named shall have power to pass all such ordinances as may be necessary to regulate the holding and conducting of the elections herein provided for, or which may be hereafter authorized to be held, to appoint judges of election and clerks of election, and to provide to whom and the mode and manner to which and in which the returns of said elections shall be made; and no one shall be eligible for the office of Mayor or Councilman of said town unless he shall be a real estate owner in said town and shall have resided therein for two years previous to his election; the first election under this Act to be regulated and conducted in the manner now regulated by law for the election of commissioners of Grantsville, and by the present board of corporation officers of said place.

Ordinances may be passed regulating the holding of elections.

Section 115. And be it further enacted, That the newly elected Councilmen, on the second Monday of June after their election, shall meet for organization and shall choose some one of their number as president of the board, whose duty it shall be to preside at all meetings, preserve order and to give such directions as may be deemed necessary by said board of councilmen to carry into effect the provisions of the sub-title of this article, but said president shall not be entitled to vote at said meetings of said Council unless there should be a tie vote, and in that case he shall have the Meet for organization.