

CHAP. 423

General powers.

to public comfort or health ; to prohibit the erection of such buildings or the continuance of such noxious, injurious occupations therein, wherever the public comfort or health requires it ; to prevent or regulate the use and sale of fire-arms, fireworks, bonfires, or other things or practices tending to endanger persons or property ; to regulate and prohibit the running at large of cattle, horses or swine, fowls, sheep, goats, dogs or other animals ; to authorize the compounding, keeping, sale and redemption of such animals when found in violation of the ordinance in such case provided ; to prevent the deposit of any unwholesome substance either on private or public property ; compel its removal to designated points, and to require slops, garbage, ashes and other wastes or unwholesome materials to be removed to designated points, or to require the occupants of premises to place them conveniently for removal ; to compel the occupants of any premises, buildings or out-houses situated in said town when the same have become filthy or unwholesome, to abate or cleanse the same, and upon failure of the owners to abate such nuisance, then the Council shall authorize the same to be done by the proper public officers and to assess the expenses thereof against such property ; to regulate or prevent the storage of gun powder, tar, pitch, coal oil, benzine, turpentine, hemp, cotton, nitroglycerine, dynamite, giant powder, petroleum or gasoline or any product thereof, or any other explosive or combustible materials, or any materials which may be dangerous ; to authorize the removal or confinement of persons having infectious or pestilential diseases ; to pass all ordinances and orders, and to expend such sums of money as may be necessary within the limitations herein provided for the protection, maintenance and preservation of the water supply of the town and the prevention of the pollution thereof ; to make all regulation which may be deemed expedient for the promotion of health or suppression of disease ; to regulate the construction of chimneys, smoke stacks, hearths, ovens, the erection of stoves and stove pipes, boilers and apparatus used in buildings or other places, and cause the same to be removed or made secure when considered dangerous ; to suppress, restrain and regulate bawdy houses and houses of ill-fame, and to prohibit the youth of said town from being in the streets, lanes or alleys at unreasonable hours of the