

made within six months from the passage of this Act; and no animals slaughtered after the passage of this Act shall be appraised and paid for hereunder unless such appraisement shall be made or begun within six months from the time when such animals were slaughtered.

Approved April 9, 1906.

CHAP. 431

CHAPTER 432.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Section 159 of Article 9 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Charles County," sub-title "Roads and Bridges," as said section was repealed and re-enacted by Chapter 227 of the Acts of 1902.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 159 of Article 9 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Charles County," sub-title "Roads and Bridges," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, so as to read as follows :

Section 159. The County Commissioners of Charles county shall, at their first meeting in March, annually, appoint in each election district of said county three substantial citizens of Charles county, who shall be taxpayers on real estate, to be known as "District Road Superintendents;" the said superintendents shall immediately after their appointment meet in their respective districts and organize by the election of a president and secretary, and thereupon they shall appoint a road supervisor for each election district, who shall receive one dollar and fifty cents a day for each day actually engaged in supervising the work on the county roads and working thereon; the said superintendents shall employ not more than five laborers, and less when in their discretion five are not needed to work on the county roads, said laborers not to receive more than one dollar per day when actually engaged at work; all work on said county roads shall be under the management of the district road superintendent, subject to the supervision of the County Commissioners; the supervisors shall monthly make out the accounts for road work in their districts and present the same to the district road superintendents, who shall then approve or disapprove said accounts as their judgment Repeal and re-enact.

District road superintendents.