

CHAP. 458      vacancy ; said election shall be held after not less than ten days' notice and shall be conducted in all respects as regular elections are conducted.

67. The Mayor by virtue of his office shall see that the ordinances of the town are duly and faithfully executed ;
 Town attorney, chief of police, etc., appointed. by and with the advice and consent of the Council, he shall appoint a town attorney, chief of police and town clerk, and such other officers as the ordinances of the town may provide ; he shall annually, on the first Monday in April, report to the Council in writing the general state of the town, with an accurate account of money received and expended, which said report shall be published in one or more newspapers of said town, giving a full and particular statement of all receipts and disbursements ; he shall have power to remove any of the officers appointed by him for neglect or violation of any duties pertaining to their respective offices, and shall appoint others in their stead, subject to confirmation by the Council, as in the case of original appointments ; he shall have general supervision of the town, and shall receive for his services an annual salary of one hundred and fifty dollars ; he shall by and with the consent of the Council appoint three citizens of known integrity, experience and sound judgment, one of whom shall be a physician, who, together with the Mayor and town attorney, shall constitute the board of health, and as such shall have all the authority within the limits of said town that is now or may be hereafter vested in the health officers of Talbot county or in inspectors of the State board of health, or that may be vested in them by the charter and ordinances of said town. The members of the said board shall hold office for two
 Term of office. years from the date of their respective appointments, and until the qualification of their successors, and shall receive such compensation for their services as may be allowed by ordinance.

68. The Mayor by and with the advice and consent of the Council shall annually, on or before the first Monday in June, appoint a competent person, a resident and legal voter
 Chief of police appointed. of said town, to be chief of police, who shall hold his office until the first Monday in June following his appointment and until the qualification of his successor, unless sooner removed as authorized by law. The chief of police shall see that all ordinances are enforced, and he, together with such