report to the Mayor every such inspection and his action in connection therewith, and for every such inspection the inspector shall be paid for his services such fees as the Council may by ordinance provide ; he shall see that the conditions of the permit are carried out and perform such other duties as may be required of him by ordinance.

To be delivered to the Mayor
for his
approval
three days
after their passage.

71 c. All ordinances or resolutions duly passed by the Council and being properly certified by the president of the Council as having been so passed shall be delivered by the town clerk to the Mayor for his approval within three days after its passage, and there shall be noted on said ordinances or resolutions the date of said delivery ; and, when approved by him, they shall become ordinances or resolutions of the Mayor and Council of Easton. If the Mayor shall not approve of any ordinance or resolution so passed by the Council he shall return the same with his objections in writing to the Council, at its next regular meeting, excluding special meetings called by the Mayor, or occurring after such delivery of said ordinance or resolution to him, which objections, upon receipt of the same by the Council, shall be forthwith read to the Council and entered at large on its journal ; and the Council shall, at its next regular meeting, after such ordinance or resolution shall have been returned to it by the Mayor, proceed to reconsider and vote upon the same. If such ordinance or resolution shall, after reconsideration, be again passed by unanimous vote of all the members elected to said Council it shall be and become, to all intents and purposes, an ordinance or resolution of the Mayor and Council of Easton. If any ordinance or resolution duly passed by the Council shall not be returned by the Mayor to the Council by its next regular meeting, excluding special meetings called by the Mayor, after it shall have been delivered to him, the same shall become an ordinance or resolution of the Mayor and Council of Easton in the same manner as if the Mayor had approved it, unless the Council by an adjournment of a period exceeding one month shall prevent its return. In case an ordinance or resolution duly passed by the Council shall embrace different items of appropriation, the Mayor may approve the provisions thereof relating to one or more items of appropriation and disapprove the others, and in such case those he shall approve shall become effective and those which he shall not
