

CHAP 465½

Preamble.

WHEREAS, Without waiting to see what response there would be by the citizens of Baltimore city generally to the appeal for aid made to them by the good people of the town of Millington, in Kent county, in this State, after the disastrous conflagration which recently visited that town, Michael Jenkins, a citizen of Baltimore, advanced to the relief of suffering inflicted by said fire the sum of one thousand four hundred and twenty-one dollars and forty-five cents ; and

WHEREAS, The people of Baltimore city are in many ways too deeply indebted to the public spirit and generosity of Michael Jenkins to be willing that he should personally assume the whole of an obligation that they ought, under the circumstances, to insist should be borne by them all,

SECTION 1. Now, therefore, be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore be and it is hereby authorized to reimburse Michael Jenkins for said sum advanced by him as aforesaid.

Reimbursement.

Approved April 3, 1906.

CHAPTER 466.

AN ACT to appropriate a sum of money for the payment of the costs in the case of Blum versus the State of Maryland.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, By the mandate of the Court of Appeals of Maryland in the case of Blum versus the State, appealed from the Criminal Court of the city of Baltimore and reported in 94th Maryland Reports, at page 375, judgment was reversed, with costs to be paid by the appellee above and below ; and

WHEREAS, No fund is provided by law for the payment of said costs, and most of the same have been paid by the appellant, which have not been re-imbursed, and the same remain unpaid to his great damage and injury ; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the sum of two hundred and ninety-eight dollars and seventy-five cents ($298.75) be and the same is hereby appropriated for the payment of the said costs out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, and the Comptroller of the State be and he is hereby directed to draw his warrant upon the Treasurer in behalf of Philip
