

CHAP. 468½ use a levy is made shall be entitled to receive the same in full on the first day of January next succeeding the date of such levy; provided, however, that he may previous to that time procure from the County Commissioners an order stating the amount of such levy; and the treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to receive said orders, or so much thereof as may be necessary, in payment of taxes due under the levy upon which such order is issued.

Disposition of taxes, etc. 262 F. The treasurer shall pay over the State taxes and the county levies for school purposes at the times and in the manner prescribed by the laws of the State.

Compensation. 262 G. The treasurer shall receive as compensation for all his services as treasurer an annual salary of $1,500, to be paid monthly, two per cent. commission on all State tax paid over by him, and such commission as may accrue under the provisions of this Act.

Clerks appointed. 262 H. The treasurer shall appoint such clerks as may be necessary for the proper discharge of the duties of his office, who shall be deputy treasurers, shall qualify under the Constitution of the State, and shall give such bond to the treasurer as he may require, but the aggregate annual salary of said clerks shall in no case exceed the sum of twelve hundred dollars ($1,200.00).

Provide suitable office. 262 I. The County Commissioners shall provide at the public expense a suitable office for the treasurer, furnish the same amply and conveniently, and shall annually levy such sums as may be necessary to pay the salaries of the treasurer and his clerks, his commissions on State taxes, the cost of books, stationery and stamps for his office, and all printing and advertising required under the provisions of this Act, and not otherwise provided for.

Statement to be made of all taxes placed in the hands of the county commissioners, etc. 262 J. The said treasurer shall, at the expiration of his term of office, make a full statement with the County Commissioners of all county taxes placed in his hands for collection, and all erroneous and insolvent tax bills for which he shall claim a credit shall be presented to said County Commissioners before or at the time above specified for said final settlement, and in no case shall said County Commissioners allow a credit for erroneous or insolvent tax bills, unless satisfactory proof be produced, under oath, that said bills cannot be collected; and the said treasurer is required to
