and costs are paid, and the said president or said justice of the peace shall have jurisdiction in such cases.

Registers appointed.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That John L. Casey, P. H. Gallagher, Jr., and Gordon Durst be and they are hereby appointed registers to hold the first registration of voters under this Act; and that as soon as practicable after the passage of this Act they shall give at least ten days' notice of the time and place by handbills posted in at least five conspicuous places in said town, at which all qualified voters, as prescribed in the third section of this Act, may be registered; and the said officers of registration shall take the oath before a justice of the peace of said county to permit every qualified person to register, and none other. The majority of said registration officers shall have the power to do all things under this section in the event of the death or refusal of any one of them to act; that upon the completion of the registry of voters the registrars herein named shall give the judges of election herein named a list of voters registered; that after the first election the commissioners shall make rules and regulations in regard to registration of voters as they may deem proper.

Give judges list of voters registered.

Judges of election.

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That F. P. Showater, James S. Roberts and Pearre Miller, be and they are hereby appointed judges of election to hold the first election under this Act, and that ten days before the last Monday in April, 1906, they shall give notice that the election will be held and the places thereof by handbills posted in at least five public places in said town, at which election, all persons duly registered under the thirteenth section of this Act shall be entitled to vote for five persons for commissioners, one person for clerk, and one person for bailiff, and that said judges of election, before opening the polls, shall take oath before some justice of the peace of said county, to permit every registered voter to vote, and none other; and a majority of said judges shall have power to conduct said election in case one of them dies or refuses to act.

For incorporation or against incorporation printed on ballot.

SEC. 15, And be it enacted, That at the election provided for in Section 3 of this Act, each voter shall have written or printed on his ticket for "incorporation," or against "incorporation," and if a majority of the qualified voters in said town shall vote in favor of "incorporation" then the provisions of this Act shall take effect, and the election there-
