

Appeals. SEC. 22. That in all appeals from the decision of said justice of the peace in said corporation to the Circuit Court for Washington county, the parties appealing shall give bond, with at least two sureties, who shall be approved by said justice, in a penalty double the amount of the fine imposed and costs which may accrue on said appeal, which penalty shall be judged by said justice, and conditioned that if the party appealing shall not prosecute such appeal with effect at the next term of the Circuit Court for said Washington county, and also pay and satisfy said judgment, fines and costs in said case, the judgment of said justice shall be affirmed, as also all costs that shall be awarded by the said court, then the said bond to be and remain in full force and virtue, otherwise to be of non-effect; and no appeal shall be heard by the Court until such bond shall be given and approved as aforesaid, and filed with the clerk of the Circuit Court; and provided, the appeal is taken within three days after the rendition of said judgment.

Power over streets. SEC. 23. The burgess and commissioners shall have power to provide, by ordinance, for laying out, opening, extending, widening, straightening or closing up, in whole or in part, any street, highway, square, lane, alley, drain or any water course within the limits of said town, when in their opinion public convenience may require.

Effective. SEC. 24. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 6th, 1894.
