

CHAPTER 656.

AN ACT to remit a fine imposed upon Aaron Grollman and paid into the State Treasury.

Preamble. WHEREAS, Aaron Grollman, of Baltimore city, on July 25, 1892, was fined twenty-five dollars by Thomas H. Hamilton, a justice of the peace for Baltimore city, for violation of section 31 of article 56 of the Code of Public General Laws, relative to hawkers and peddlers; and Preamble. WHEREAS, Said fine was, on November 21, 1892, remitted by the Governor, but the certificate of remission did not reach the justice of the peace until he had paid said money into the State Treasury.

Appropriation. SECTION 1. Be it enacted, That the Comptroller of the Treasury be and he is hereby authorized and directed to draw his warrant upon the Treasurer in favor of Aaron Grollman, for the sum of twenty-five dollars.

Approved April 6th, 1894.

CHAPTER 657.

AN ACT to authorize and empower the County Commissioners of Wicomico County in their discretion to build a draw bridge across Wetipquin Creek, at Wetipquin ferry, in Tyaskin district, in said County, (to take the place of said Ferry) and to levy a sum of money on the assessable property of said County, for the purpose of building said bridge.

To build draw bridge. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the County Commissioners of Wicomico county be and they are hereby authorized and empowered in their discretion to build a draw bridge across Wetipquin creek at Wetipquin ferry (to take the place of said ferry), in Tyaskin district, in said county.

To levy tax to pay for same. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the County Commissioners of Wicomico county be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to levy a sum of money on the assessable property of said county, for the purpose of building the bridge aforesaid, mentioned in section one of this article.