CHAPTER 662.

AN ACT to add new Sections to Article 23 of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Corporations," sub-title "Insurance," to come in after section 142, and to be designated Sections 142 A and 142 B, to prevent the forfeiture of Life Insurance policies, by reason of untrue statements made in good faith, and to provide that real age shall be made the basis as payment of policies.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the following new sections be added to article 23 of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Corporations," sub-title "Insurance Companies," to come in after section 142, and to be designated as sections 142 A and 142 B. New sections.

142 A. Whenever the application for a policy of life insurance contains a clause of warranty of the truth of the answers therein contained, no misrepresentation or untrue statement in such application, made in good faith by the applicant, shall effect a forfeiture or be a ground of defence in any suit brought upon any policy of insurance issued upon the faith of such application, unless such misrepresentation or untrue statement relate to some matter material to the risk. Untrue statements in application for life insurance.

142 B. Whenever it shall be made to appear that a wrong age has been given in good faith in any application for a policy of life insurance, the company shall not be required to pay the face value of the policy, but such sum as the premium paid would have purchased at the applicant's real age at the time of effecting the insurance. Real age to be the basis of payment.
