

such terms, at such time and in such installments as may be approved by said corporation; to loan and borrow money for any of the corporate purposes of said corporation; to receive money on deposit; to have discretionary power to invest at its pleasure its capital stock and all moneys received in the course of its business transactions, and to take, have, hold and enjoy all such estates, real or personal, as may be obtained with the moneys aforesaid; and to execute, acknowledge and deliver all deeds and legal papers, and any instruments concerning the same; to collect ground rents, interest on mortgages, dividends and incomes of all kinds, and to have the management and custody of all kinds of property, upon such terms as it may arrange. That said corporation shall be subject at all times to provisions of the acts of 1892, chapter 109, and shall be further subject to the acts of 1892, chapter 279.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect Effective. from the date of its passage.

Approved April 6th, 1894.

CHAPTER 664.

AN ACT to incorporate the "Maryland Mutual Fire Insurance Company," with its principal offices at Crisfield.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That George W. Long, Thomas S. Hodson, Joseph Muir, Alonzo E. Tull, William P. Horsey, Clarence Hodson, J. Fletcher Somers, Abraham L. Dryden and Isaac H. Tawes, all of Somerset county; George S. Payne, of Worcester county; James W. Waddell, of Dorchester county, and Thomas Humphreys, of Wicomico county, and their successors, and all persons, firms, or corporations who may hereafter become members of the corporation to be created by this act, are hereby created and declared to be a body politic and corporate by the name, style and title of "Maryland Mutual Fire Insurance Company," and by the same name shall have succession, and shall be able to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, answer and defend, and be answered and defended in all courts of law and equity in the State or elsewhere; to have, make and use a common seal, and the same to break, alter and renew at their pleasure, and shall have full power and authority to make insurances on any kind of property

Incorporation of Md. Mutual Fire Ins. Co.