

194. If any person, body corporate, firm or company, shall sell any spirituous or fermented liquors, intoxicating or alcoholic bitters, or other article or compound producing intoxication, he or they shall be deemed to be guilty of a violation of the preceding section, and shall, on conviction thereof, be fined in a sum of not more than three hundred dollars nor less than fifty dollars, and be imprisoned in the house of correction for not less than sixty nor more than 90 days, in the discretion of the court; one-half the fine imposed for the violation of this section to go to the informer and the residue to the board of school commissioners of said county, for the benefit of the public schools therein.

Unlawful to sell liquor.

194A. Any person, house, firm, company, association or body corporate, who shall sell directly or indirectly at any place, or give away at his or their place of business, any spirituous or fermented liquors, or alcoholic bitters, or intoxicating drinks of any kind within said county, or who shall allow his place of business to be a depository for such liquors or compounds to be used by others, shall on conviction thereof pay a fine of not less than fifty nor more than three hundred dollars, and be imprisoned in the house of correction as provided in the preceding section, in the discretion of the court.

Penalty for violation.

194B. It shall not be lawful for any person, firm, company or body corporate, to sell, give away or otherwise dispose of, at his or their place of business, any spirituous, fermented or other intoxicating liquors or medicated bitters producing intoxication, or any compound of which alcohol is an ingredient and which produces intoxication, in any district of Caroline county; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent compounding of medicines of which such liquors may be a necessary part, by duly licensed pharmacist or druggist, upon the written bona fide prescription in ink of a regular practicing physician, whose full name shall be signed thereto; and every such prescription shall be filed and kept by such pharmacist or druggist; and no one prescription shall serve for more than one purchase; but no physician shall make or sign any such prescription unless the person for whom it is made is actually sick and such liquor is absolutely required as a medicine; and any physician who shall make or sign any prescription for such liquor, except as provided for herein, shall be deemed guilty of a violation of this section, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars for each offence, and be sentenced to

Provisions as to druggists.