

CHAPTER 95.

AN ACT to repeal Section 1 of the Act of Assembly of 1892, Chapter 653, entitled "An Act to protect brook trout in Baltimore County," and re-enact the same with amendments.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted, That section 1 of the act of assembly of 1892, chapter 653, be repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows: Repeal.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall not be lawful in Baltimore county for any person to take, catch or kill any brook trout less than six inches in length, or in any manner or by any contrivance whatsoever, saving only with line and hook, baited or tied with the artificial fly; or to take, catch or kill or have in his possession any brook trout, except during the months of March, April, May and June; or obstruct in any way any stream in which trout have been placed, under penalty of ten dollars for each and every brook trout so taken, caught or killed or had in his possession, and a like penalty for each and every such obstruction; but this section shall not prevent any person or corporation from catching brook trout in any manner or at any time in water owned by him or them or upon his or their premises, to stock other waters. Catching brook trout less than six inches in length, unlawful. Penalty.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the day of its passage. Effective.

Approved March 15th, 1894.
