

persons to have the privilege of selling spirituous or fermented liquors, and he accordingly recommends the issuance of the license applied for.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That upon the filing of such application and certificate, the applicant shall pay to the clerk with whom the same are filed, the sum of two dollars, to be applied to paying the expense of advertising as hereinafter provided for, and thereupon such clerk shall insert in two successive issues in some weekly newspaper published in said county, prior to the fifteenth day of the month preceding the month for which the license is to begin, a notice that such application has been filed, specifying the kind of license applied for, and the place where the business is to be conducted, and stating that unless cause be shown to the contrary, in writing, on or before the aforesaid fifteenth day of the month preceding the month with which the license is to begin, the license applied for will be issued, provided the applicant complies with the requirements of this law requisite thereto, as hereinafter provided.

Advertisement.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That if any person shall file with such clerk, in writing, within the time specified, any reason why the license applied for should not be granted, such clerk shall forthwith present the application and certificate and the objection to a judge of the Circuit Court for said county, and such judge shall proceed to hear and determine the question as to whether the license applied for shall be issued or not, after giving such notice to the applicant and objector as such judge shall deem reasonable, and shall award the cost of such hearing as such judge shall deem equitable and just.

Objections to granting a license.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the clerk of the court who receives the said application, certificates and affidavits, shall file and carefully preserve the same, and after giving the said notice, if no cause be shown to the contrary, or if cause be shown and the said judge shall direct in writing that the license be issued, shall issue to said applicant or applicants the license applied for, upon receiving from the applicant or applicants the following sums or license fees, viz: if a license be for twelve months and for opening or keeping an ordinary or hotel and to sell thereat spirituous or fermented liquors by the drink, or in quantities not more than one quart, the sum of one hundred dollars; if the license be for twelve months and to sell spirituous or fermented liquors by the drink, or in quantities

Cost of licenses.