

be a party, and over which the police magistrate may have jurisdiction.

SEC. 24. And be it enacted, That the chief bailiff shall have the same fees for making distresses for taxes as are allowed county collectors; and for making arrests or serving process for violations of any ordinances of the corporation, the same as are allowed constables for similar services; and when the bailiff wilfully fails to discharge any duty of his office, he may be fined not exceeding ten dollars for any one offence.

Fees of chief bailiff.

SEC. 25. And be it enacted, That the commissioners shall appoint a police magistrate for said town, who shall be nominated by said commissioners to the Governor of Maryland, and commissioned by him as a justice of the peace of the State of Maryland, in and for the county of Prince George's; he shall have full power, authority and jurisdiction to hear, determine and pass sentence in all cases of the violation of the ordinance of said corporation, and may impose fines for such violation, or may imprison offenders, or may both fine and imprison offenders, and in default of payment of any fine imprisoned by him, may commit the offender to the lock-up or county jail, until the same may be paid with cost.

Police magistrate to be appointed.

SEC. 26. And be it enacted, That the commissioners shall not expend, or contract to expend, in any one year, more money than the amount receivable from taxes and other sources for that year.

Expenditures not to exceed receipts.

SEC. 27. And be it enacted, That the commissioners for the county, justices of the peace, sheriff, constables and all the county and State officers, shall have, hold and exercise their offices and jurisdiction in said town, and the Commissioners of Prince George's county shall appropriate annually the full amount of road tax levied or imposed upon the assessable property within the corporate limits of the town, and shall order the county collectors who shall collect the taxes within the said corporation limits, to pay said road taxes to the commissioners of said town, for the improvements of the streets and roads within the corporate limits of the town.

Jurisdiction of officers.

SEC. 28. And be it enacted, That the commissioners may by ordinance provide for the codification of all ordinances which have been or may be passed by it, and for the printing of such codification thereof, and the printed ordinances so issued by the authority of the commissioners may be read in evidence from the printed codification.

Codification of ordinances.