

SEC. 80. Any person violating the foregoing section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before any justice of the peace of Anne Arundel county, shall pay a fine of ten dollars for each and every partridge, quail, woodcock, pheasant, robin or rabbit, shot or taken, or sold or exposed for sale, or carried or cause to be carried out of the limits of said county, one-half of said fine imposed to be paid to the informer, the remainder of said fines imposed shall be paid to the board of county school commissioners of Anne Arundel county, for the use of the public schools in said county; and on failure to pay said fine and costs, shall be committed to the house of correction or the county jail for ten days, in the discretion of the justice trying the case. Penalty.

SEC. 81. It shall not be lawful for any person, not a bona fide resident of Anne Arundel county, to shoot, kill, catch or in any manner entrap or destroy any partridge, quail, woodcock, pheasant, rabbit or any kind of game in said county, or to gun within the limits of said county, at any time; and any person violating this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before any justice of the peace of Anne Arundel county shall be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars, and upon failure to pay said fine and costs shall be committed to the house of correction for not less than one month nor more than three months, in the discretion of the justice trying the case; one-half of said fine imposed shall be paid to the informer, and the remainder of said fines imposed shall be paid to the board of county school commissioners of Anne Arundel county for the use of the public schools in said county; and in addition to said fine shall in every case have the gun and the gaming apparatus in his possession at the time of the violation of this section confiscated and sold by judgment of the justice before whom he is tried; and the money arising from such sale shall be returned to the County Commissioners of Anne Arundel county, after having deducted therefrom the cost of such proceedings of condemnation and sale, to be by them applied to the public road fund of the district of said county wherein said violation shall occur; provided, that any land owner may extend the privilege of killing said game upon his own land to whomsoever he may. Game law.

SEC. 82. The possession by any person within said county of any of the birds mentioned in sections seventy-eight and seventy-nine, or any rabbit at any time in which the shooting Game law.