

not more than four and seven-eighths gallons, at a saloon, bar-room or any other place than an ordinary or hotel, the sum of two hundred dollars; if the license be for twelve months, and to sell spirituous or fermented liquors in quantities not less than a pint, and not to be drunk on the premises, the said clerk shall inquire of the applicant under oath, to be by such clerk administered, as to the value of the stock of spirituous or fermented liquors he intends to keep on hand in the business he proposes to conduct under the license applied for; and if it shall appear from the statement then made under oath that the value of the applicant's stock of spirituous or fermented liquors will not exceed one thousand dollars, the license fee shall be two hundred dollars; if more than one thousand dollars and not exceeding two thousand dollars, the license fee shall be three hundred dollars; if more than two thousand dollars, the license fee shall be three hundred and fifty dollars; if the license fee be for less than twelve months, the license fee shall be as many twelfths of the amounts severally specified for the twelve months' license enumerated above as the number of months for which the license shall be issued.

When liquor
not to be sold.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That no person having a license under the provisions of this act shall sell or give away any spirituous or fermented liquors on any day upon which elections are now or may hereafter be required to be held, or upon the Lord's day, commonly called Sunday; except that if the licensee be the keeper of an ordinary or hotel, he may supply such liquors on Sunday, to be drunk in their rooms or with their meals, to bona fide guests; nor shall he sell or give away any spirituous or fermented liquors to any minor, or to any other person for the purpose of being drunk by a minor; nor shall he knowingly sell or give any spirituous or fermented liquors to any drunkard, or to any person at the time visibly affected by intoxicating drinks; nor shall he sell or give any spirituous or fermented liquors to any person whose parent, guardian, husband or wife, or other relative on whom the support of the family may depend, shall have given such licensee a notice in writing under oath that such person is of intemperate habits; nor shall he sell or give any spirituous or fermented liquors at his place of business to any person, between the hours of twelve o'clock, midnight, and four o'clock A. M. at any time.

License to be framed.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That every person receiving a license under this act to sell spirituous or fermented liquors, shall frame his license under glass, and place the same so that