- Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the object and purpose of said body corporate, as set out and declared in said Further original act of incorporation, be and the same are hereby changed and enlarged, and said act is hereby amended, so that the object and purposes of said body corporate shall hereafter be to support ministers of the gospel employed as home missionaries by the said Maryland Annual Conference, and also to aid in building and improving churches within the bounds of said conference; and for such purposes the said body corporate shall have and exercise all the rights, powers and privileges conferred upon it by said original act of incorporation.
- SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the property and funds of said body corporate, including the income from any How funds and all investments, may be used and applied in furtherance may be used of the object and purposes of said body corporate as hereby enlarged and declared, in such manner as the said Maryland Annual Conference may direct; and said charter of said body corporate, as conferred by said original act of incorporation, is hereby amended to conform to this provision, and nothing therein shall be construed to the contrary.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this act shall take Executive. effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 27th, 1894.

CHAPTER 120.

AN ACT to refund to John S. Hamilton, late collector of State taxes for St. Michael's district of Talbot County, a sum of money erroneously paid by him into the treasury.

Section 1. And be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the comptroller of the treasury be and he is to pay claim. hereby authorized and directed to issue his warrant upon the treasurer of this State in favor of John S. Hamilton, late collector of State taxes for St. Michael's district of Talbot county, for the sum of fourteen dollars and fifty-seven cents, being the amount overpaid by him into the treasury for the years eighteen hundred and ninety and eighteen hundred and ninety-one, the same having received the recommendation of the treasury officials.