

as amended by chapter 35 of the Acts of 1890, be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

5. No person shall kill, trap, catch or take, any partridge or rabbit in Baltimore county until November the eighth, 1895; Game law. any pheasant or gray squirrel until September first, 1895; or any woodcock until June fifteenth, 1895; and from and after such dates, no person shall kill, trap, catch or take any partridge or rabbit between the twenty-fourth day of December and the eighth day of November, exclusive; any pheasant between the first day of January and the first day of September, exclusive; any gray squirrel between the first day of November and the first day of September, exclusive, or any woodcock between the first day of February and the fifteenth day of June, exclusive.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That sections 6 and 7 of said Repeal. article be repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

6. Any person, whether owner or tenant of property, or trespasser, or license thereon, violating any of the provisions Game law. of the preceding section, prohibiting gaming, &c., before the dates specified in the year 1895, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before any justice of the peace of said county, or other tribunal before whom the trial for such offence may come, shall pay a fine of not less than ten nor more than twenty-five dollars for each and every bird, rabbit or gray squirrel so illegally taken or killed, one-half of said fine to be paid to the informer, and the remainder as directed in the succeeding section; and on failure to pay said fine shall be committed to the house of correction or the county jail for a period of not less than ten nor more than thirty days for each offence; and after the season of eighteen hundred and ninety-five, any person violating any of the provisions of the preceding section, fixing the seasons for the killing of the game mentioned therein, shall pay a fine of not less than two nor more than five dollars for each and every bird, rabbit or gray squirrel so illegally taken or killed, fine to go as aforesaid, and on failure to pay such fine, shall be committed to the county jail for a period of not less than five nor more than ten days for each offence; and any having the right to the possession, ownership or supervision of property, who shall give any other person or persons permission to shoot the aforementioned game on the lands and premises so held by them, contrary to the provisions of this article, shall be held