

SEC. 197. In case of a failure to elect a mayor and at least three councilmen, those in office shall continue to perform the duties pending an election, which shall be held upon the notice prescribed hereinbefore. Failure to elect.

SEC. 202. The city council shall meet upon the next Monday night succeeding their election, and after qualifying by taking the prescribed oath, proceed to elect one of their number president of the council; the said council shall meet on the second Monday of each month, for the transaction of the regular business of the town, but may meet oftener if required. At all meetings of said council, three members present and voting shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and a majority vote of all the members elected shall be necessary for the passage of any ordinance or resolution. If during the term of said mayor or councilmen any one of them should resign or remove from the town, or otherwise be disqualified, an election to fill the vacancy, on ten days' notice thereof being given by the mayor or council, shall be held, at which all persons qualified as prescribed in section one hundred and ninety-two shall be entitled to vote. Meetings of council. Quorum.

SEC. 207. There shall be appointed annually by the mayor and city council, and possessing the same qualifications as the mayor, one person as bailiff of said town, whose duty it shall be to preserve the peace and good order of the town, and for this purpose the said bailiff is hereby vested with the same powers and authority now possessed by constables under the laws of the State; said bailiff shall take the required oath and enter upon his duties on the second Monday of April of each year. Bailiff to be appointed.

SEC. 237. There shall be appointed annually by the mayor and city council, and possessing the same qualifications as the mayor, one person as supervisor, whose duty it shall be to superintend the improvements of the town, and who shall perform such other duties as the mayor and city council may prescribe; and he shall be allowed such compensation as shall be fixed by them, and in case of a vacancy in the said office a new appointment shall be made. Supervisor to be appointed.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. Effective.

Approved March 27th, 1894.
