

infantry commands as may then be in existence, to be attached to them and worked by them as part of their service, under the officers designated by the brigade commander for this duty; that the said brigade, infantry, cavalry and artillery, shall be commanded by a brigadier general, or in case of a vacancy, by a senior ranking officer until a brigadier general shall be duly commissioned and qualified, and the headquarters of the brigade shall be in the city of Baltimore.

Effective.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 27th, 1894.

CHAPTER 137.

AN ACT to enable the Board of Trustees of the "First German Evangelical Lutheran St. John's Congregation of Baltimore city," a religious corporation duly incorporated under the laws of the State of Maryland, to sell and convey certain lots therein with the improvements thereon.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the board of trustees of the First German Evangelical Lutheran St. John's Congregation of Baltimore city, duly incorporated under the laws of Maryland, be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to sell and convey: First, in fee simple the lot and improvements now used as a place of worship by said congregation, and the out buildings to rear of said church now used as a tenement house and situated on Biddle street in Baltimore city, and described as follows, that is to say: Beginning for the same on the northwest side of Biddle street at the distance of three hundred and twelve feet northeastwardly, from the northeast side of Pennsylvania avenue (formerly the Reisterstown Turnpike Road); and at the distance of one hundred and fifty-two feet northeastwardly, from a twenty feet alley, and running thence northeastwardly binding on Biddle street, sixty feet; thence northwesterly paralleled with Pennsylvania avenue (formerly the Reisterstown Turnpike Road), one hundred and fifty feet to another alley, fifteen feet wide (now called Biddle alley); thence May sell certain property.