

86 B as enacted by the act of 1890, chapter 304, sections 87, 88, 89, section 89 A as enacted by the act of 1890, chapter 282, of article 56 of the Code of Public General Laws of the State of Maryland, title "Licenses," sub-titles, respectively, "Ordinary Keepers," "Oyster or Eating Houses," and "Penalties," so far as said sections apply to Allegany county; chapter 433 of the act of 1892, entitled "An act to regulate the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors within three miles in every direction of the city of Cumberland, Maryland," be and the same are hereby repealed.

New sections. SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That sixteen new sections be and the same are hereby added to article one of the Code of Public Local Laws of the State of Maryland, title "Allegany County," under the sub-title "Intoxicating Liquors," to follow immediately after section 174, to be designated as sections 175, 175 A, 175 B, 175 C, 175 D, 175 E, 175 F, 175 G, 175 H, 175 I, 175 J, 175 K, 175 L, 175 M, 175 N, 175 O, to read as follows:

Application for license. 175 A. Every person applying for a license to keep an oyster house, cook shop, victualling house, tavern, lager beer saloon, or for an ordinary license to sell spirituous or fermented liquors in Allegany county, shall file with the clerk of the Circuit Court for Allegany county, his or her petition for such license, and shall at the same time pay to said clerk two dollars for expenses connected therewith, and said clerk shall cause to be published three times in two leading newspapers of Cumberland, of opposite political parties, a list containing the names of all such applicants, their respective residences and the place of business for which such application is made; the first publication shall not be less than ten days nor more than twenty days before the time fixed by said clerk for the consideration of such applications.

What application to contain. 175 B. Said petition shall state the name and residence of the applicant or applicants, and how long he, she or they have resided therein; second, the particular place for which a license is desired, designating the same by street and number, if practicable, and if not, by such other apt description as definitely locates it; third, the name of the owner of the premises upon which the business licensed is to be carried on; fourth, a statement that the applicant is a citizen of the United States; fifth, that the applicant or applicants have nor has either of them had a license for the sale of intoxicating liquors revoked under the provisions of this law, nor has either