

that such order is genuine; and no licensee under this act shall knowingly sell, furnish or give any intoxicating, spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer to an habitual drunkard or to any person whose parents, guardians, husband or wife shall have given notice to such licensee in writing, verified by affidavit, that such person is of intemperate habits, and requesting such licensee not to sell to him or her. The word "knowingly," as used in this act, shall be construed to mean such knowledge as a reasonable man would have under ordinary circumstances from the appearance of the minor or the individual.

Selling on Sundays or
on election
days, unlawful.

175 h. No licensee under this act shall sell or furnish to any person intoxicating, spirituous or fermented liquors, on any day on which elections are now or may hereafter be required to be held, or on the Lord's day, commonly called Sunday, except that if the licensee is a hotel keeper, he may supply such liquors to be drunk in their rooms or with their meals to bona fide guests, nor except in hotels shall conduct his business in any place to which an entrance shall be allowed other than from a public travelled way.

Provisions as to druggists.

175 i. Druggists and apothecaries shall not be required to obtain license under the provisions of this act, but they shall not sell intoxicating liquors, except upon written prescription of a regular physician, nor more than once on any prescription of any physician, and said prescriptions shall be filed and preserved by the druggist or apothecary filing the same, and upon complaint, verified by affidavit, shall be produced before the Circuit Court for Allegany county when required, and the failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall render such druggist or apothecary so failing liable to the same penalties as if he sold intoxicating liquors without license.

Penalty for selling without license.

175 j. Any person who shall hereafter be convicted of selling intoxicating, spirituous or fermented liquors, or lager beer or any admixture thereof, in Allegany county, without a license under the provisions of this act, shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or undergo imprisonment in the county jail, of not less than three months nor more than twelve months, or both fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the Court before which such offender or offenders shall be tried.