

business carried on under a license issued under the provisions of this act, said court shall, after giving the party holding such license, fifteen days written notice, revoke the same.

Assignment of license. 175 n. Any person or persons holding a license issued under the provisions of this act, may assign the unexpired term thereof to another; provided, that said assignee shall comply with all the requirements and provisions of this act, in the same manner as is hereby required of an original applicant for a license under this act, and, upon such transfer, the license so transferred shall have the consent of the clerk of the Circuit Court for Allegany county, endorsed on said license, and such assignee shall in every respect be subject to all the requirements, provisions and penalties of this act, and also of all privileges and benefits hereby conferred.

Provisions as to clubs. 175 o. No club or corporation in Allegany county heretofore formed or hereafter to be formed under the general laws of this State, or under any special law, shall give, barter or sell any spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer to any member thereof, or to any other person, without having first complied with the requirements of this act; and such club or corporation procuring a license under the provisions of this act, shall be subject to all the conditions and penalties of this act, and all its rights and privileges.

Effective. Refusal to grant license. SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect on the first day of May, in the year 1894; and in the event of any person who shall have received a license under the now existing law, being refused a license under this act, he, she or they shall be allowed the term of two months to dispose of such stock as he, she or they may have on hand; but if such person shall do a liquor business after the expiration of said two months, he, she or they shall be deemed guilty of selling liquors without license, and be liable to the penalties therefor; provided, however, that all licenses in force at the time of the adoption of this act shall continue in force until the first day of May, 1894; and provided further, that nothing contained in this act shall apply to cases pending now to violations of the law which shall have occurred prior to the adoption of this act, but all such cases and violations shall be prosecuted as if this act had not been passed and adopted.

Repeal. SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act (so far as the same are so inconsistent) are hereby repealed.

Approved March 29th, 1894.
