

Society;" the bequest of one thousand dollars to the "Home for Fallen Women in the City of Baltimore;" the bequest of two thousand dollars to the "First Congregational Church of Baltimore," in trust for the benefit of the "Congregational Church or Society of Frostburg, Maryland;" the bequest of two thousand dollars to the "First Congregational Church of Baltimore," in trust for the benefit of the "Second Congregational Church of Baltimore;" the bequest of one thousand dollars to the "Maryland Historical Society;" the bequest of thirty thousand dollars to the "First Congregational Church of Baltimore."

Effective.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 31st, 1894.

CHAPTER 169.

AN ACT to require the clerk of the Circuit Court for Charles County to procure a new book for a docket, and to transcribe therein all the docket entries of cases in equity on the old equity dockets of the said Circuit Court for said county, properly indexed, from the year 1811 to the year 1885, inclusive.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the clerk of the Circuit Court for Charles county be and he is hereby authorized and directed to procure a well bound book for an equity docket for the said Circuit Court for said county, to be designated as equity docket No. 1, and to transcribe therein all the docket entries of cases in equity on the old equity docket of the said Circuit Court from the year 1811 to the year 1885, inclusive, and to properly index the same.

New book for docket entries.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the clerk of the said court for the said county shall receive for the purchase of the said book, procured for the purpose aforesaid, the actual costs thereof, and for his services in transcribing and indexing, as aforesaid, he shall receive the same fees as are now allowed by law for transcribing names and indexing records, the Fees for transcribing.