

missioners," be and the same is hereby repealed, and that sections 49 and 49 A of said article and sub-title, as the same were enacted by chapter 569 of the acts of 1892, be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, so as to read as follows:

49. There shall hereafter be five County Commissioners for Charles county; and the Governor is hereby authorized and directed, immediately after the passage of this act, to appoint from the legally qualified citizens of said county, two persons to serve as County Commissioners of said county until the general election, to be held therein on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November, eighteen hundred and ninety-five, or until their successors are duly elected and qualified.

49A. That two of the County Commissioners now holding the said office in said county, viz: William F. Sims and George W. Carroll, shall hold their respective offices as follows, to wit: the said William F. Sims shall hold his said office for a period of four years from the date of his election on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1891; and the said George W. Carroll shall hold his said office for six years from the date of the election of his predecessor in office on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in the month of November, in the year 1891; and the County Commissioners of said county elected on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in the month of November, 1893, shall hold his office for six years from the date of his election; and at the general election to be held in Charles county on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in the month of November, 1895, there shall be elected by the legal and qualified voters of said county, three legally qualified persons as County Commissioners for said county, who shall serve, respectively, as follows: one for the term of two years; one for the term of four years, and one for the term of six years, or until their successors are elected and qualified; and every second year thereafter there shall be elected in said county at the general election to be held therein, the number of persons as County Commissioners equal to the number whose term shall then expire, who shall serve for the term of six years or until their successors shall be elected and qualified.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 3d, 1894.