

Result of election

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That if it shall appear by the returns of said judges of election and certificate of the clerk of said court, that a majority of the votes cast in the said district, shall be against the sale of spirituous, fermented liquors or lager beer, then it shall not be lawful for any person or persons, or body corporate, to sell directly or indirectly at any place in said district, or to give away at his, her or their place of business, in said district, any spirituous or fermented liquors, or lager beer or any intoxicating drinks of any kind; nor shall it be lawful for the clerk of the Circuit Court for Frederick county to issue a license for the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer in said district, on or after the first day of May, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-four.

Selling liquor, unlawful.

Penalty.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons, or body corporate, shall sell directly or indirectly at any place within said district, or give away at his, her or their place of business in said district, any spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer, or intoxicating drinks of any kind, on or after the first day of May, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-four, should the majority of votes cast at said election be against the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer, he, she or they shall on conviction thereof in the Circuit Court for said county be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than three hundred dollars for each offence.

Oaths of judges and clerks.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the County Commissioners of said Frederick county shall appoint three judges of election and two clerks, residents of said district, for said special election, each of whom shall qualify by taking the following oaths respectively: "I, A. B., do swear or affirm that I will permit all persons to vote who shall offer to vote at the special election now to be held for Cragerstown district, in Frederick county, whose names shall appear on the list of voters furnished to me as required by law, as qualified voters under the Constitution and laws of this State, and that I will not permit any person to vote at the said election whose name shall not be found upon the said list of qualified voters, and I will in all things execute the office of judge of the said election according to the best of my knowledge, without favor or partiality, so help me God." "I, A. B., do swear or affirm that I will well and faithfully, without favor or affection or partiality, execute the office of clerk of the special election now to be held, according to the best of my knowledge, so help me God."
