

Game law. SEC. 8. It shall not be lawful for any person to shoot, or in any manner catch, kill or have in possession, in Carroll county, any partridge or rabbit, between the twenty-fifth day of December and the eighth day of November next ensuing, both days exclusive, in each and every year; any pheasant or squirrel, between the first day of January and the first day of September, exclusive, or any woodcock, between the first day of February and the fifteenth day of June, exclusive; nor shall any person during such period destroy or molest the eggs or nests of said birds in said county.

License. SEC. 9 A. It shall not be lawful for any person not a bona fide resident or taxpayer of Carroll county to shoot any woodcock, pheasants, partridges, rabbits or squirrels in the said county without having first obtained from the clerk of the Circuit Court for said county a license permitting the person named in said license to shoot game in said county for one year from the day on which said license is issued, such license to give to the licensee no rights other than those possessed by citizens of the county under this act; and the person named therein, or party procuring such license, shall pay the said clerk for such license the sum of ten dollars, which amount shall be turned over by said clerk to the Board of County School Commissioners of Carroll county for the use of the public schools in said county, and fifty cents to the said clerk for his fee for issuing said license; and any non-resident convicted before a justice of the peace of said county of gunning or trapping within the limits of said county without a license so to do, shall be fined ten dollars for each bird, rabbit or squirrel found in his possession, or proven to have been killed by him in case none are found in his possession, and shall forfeit his gun or other instrument used by him in the killing or taking thereof, the same to become the property of the person on whose premises such non-resident may be found gunning or trapping; and on failure to pay said fine of ten dollars the offender shall be confined in the county jail for ten days; provided, that any land owner may by express authority extend the privilege of killing said game upon his land to whomsoever he pleases during the parts of the year in which the killing of such games is lawful under the provisions of this act, unless the person so privileged be engaged in taking or killing said game for the market, in which case the aforesaid license fee shall be paid in the manner specified; in case of conviction for any offense under the provisions of this act, one half of all fines imposed shall be paid to the informer, and the other half

Cost of license.

Penalty.

Proviso.