

SEC. 195. If the sheriff, constable or citizen making such seizure of property does not know the name of the owner or owners of said property, or having charge thereof, he may describe him in the notice to be given as the owner of the property, without naming him, and the justice of the peace, if he does not know the name of the owner, may condemn the property as the property of a person violating the law, without naming him. Where owner is unknown.

SEC. 196. One-half of all fines collected by any justice of the peace in said county for the violation of this act, and one-half of all net proceeds of the sale of any gun, boat or other property forfeited under the provisions of this act, shall be paid to the school commissioners of Charles county for the use of the public schools, and the other half shall be paid to the person making the arrest or seizure, unless such arrest or seizure shall be made by a sheriff or constable by authority of a warrant, in which case the said half of such fines or forfeiture shall be equally divided between the informer and the officer making the arrest or seizure. Disposition of fines.

SEC. 197. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. Effective.

Approved April 3d, 1894.

CHAPTER 226.

AN ACT to repeal Section 26, Chapter 189, of the Acts of 1892, title "Worcester County," sub-title "Pocomoke City," and re-enact the same with amendments.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section 26, chapter 189, of the Acts of 1892, title "Worcester County," sub-title "Pocomoke City," be repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows: Repeal.

SEC. 26. And be it enacted, That for the purpose of defraying the costs and expenses incurred in laying out new streets and widening and improving old ones, and protecting the property within corporate limits from the destruction by fire in the purchase of a fire engine and hose, and the erection of a lockup and engine house, the Mayor and Council are empowered to borrow money not exceeding ten thousand dollars, this to be inclusive of bonds already issued on the faith May issue bonds.