

however, as not to prevent the free and convenient travel over such road by any citizens; and this corporation is further authorized to acquire such rights of way in fee of lands as they may find needful or advantageous to the construction and operation of such railway line or lines, by purchase, gift, grant or condemnation in the manner provided by law for acquisition of private property for public use; provided, however, that this corporation shall first obtain the consent to erect so much of its railway as is located upon any of the public roads or high-ways of Baltimore county from the County Commissioners of said county; and provided further, that it shall first obtain the consent to erect so much of its railways as is located upon any of the streets of Baltimore city from the Mayor and City Council of said city.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That this corporation, subject, Perpetual existence. however, to the constitutional right of amendment and repeal, shall have perpetual continuance.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That this act shall take Effective. effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 6th, 1894.

CHAPTER 228.

AN ACT to incorporate the Clifton Savings Bank of Baltimore City.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That William Bahlke, John F. Stuntz, Albin Seidel, Ferdinand Schilling, William Wise, John W. Banks, George B. Foulkes, William W. Roberts, John F. Kline, George M. Donelson, Geo. W. Bahlke, John F. Otto, Louis C. Hauselmann, John C. Krautz and John Hannibal, and such persons as shall hereafter become directors thereof, shall be and they are hereby constituted a body corporate and politic, by the name of the Clifton Savings Bank of Baltimore City, and by that name shall have perpetual succession and be capable Corporate powers. in law to hold and dispose of property, to sue and may be sued in courts of law, equity and in any other place; to receive and make all deeds, transfers, contracts and conveyances and grants whatsoever; to have and use a common seal,