

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That said board of managers shall make, annually, a detailed report to the Governor of all moneys received and expended by them in carrying out the provisions of this act. Annual report.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. Effective.

Approved April 3d, 1894.

CHAPTER 232.

AN ACT to repeal Section one hundred and twenty-four A of Article twenty-seven of the Code of General Public Laws, title "Crimes and Punishments," sub-title "Gaming," as enacted by the act of 1890, chapter 206, and to re-enact the same with amendments.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section one hundred and twenty-four A of article twenty-seven of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Crimes and Punishments," sub-title "Gaming," as enacted by the act of 1890, chapter 206, be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments so as to read as follows: Repeal.

124 A. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons or association of persons to gamble or make books and pools on the result of any trotting race or running race of horses or race of any kind, or to establish, keep, rent or use, or knowingly suffer to be used or occupied, any house, building or portion of a building, vessel or place, on land or water, for the purpose of making or selling therein any book or pool, or of otherwise betting therein or thereon, upon the result of any trotting race or running race of horses or race of any kind; provided, nothing in this section shall render it unlawful for any person to make a pool or a book or to let within the grounds of any agricultural association, or upon any horse race which shall be held within the same grounds, race course or drinking park, upon which said person shall so make a pool or a book or shall so bet, upon the same day on which said race shall be so held, on not more than thirty days in any one calendar year; any person violating any of the provisions of this Making books and pools on horse races, unlawful.