

conduct of livery stables, and to enact ordinances respecting the keeping and boarding of horses thereat; providing the keepers of such stables for such keeping and board, not inconsistent with the laws of this State.

SEC. 23. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall have the power to license and regulate the sweeping of chimneys, and fix the rates therefor; to regulate the sweeping of any chimney by neglect of which the said town may be endangered.

SEC. 24. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall have the power to enact ordinances for the prevention of cruelty to animals, and to fix the penalties for the violation thereof, not inconsistent with the laws of this State.

SEC. 25. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall have the power to fix by ordinance, the disposition of all fines and penalties imposed in violation of any of the ordinances of said town.

SEC. 26. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall have the power to establish regulations for the prevention and extinguishment of fire; to appoint firemen, and appoint, organize and equip fire companies and to fix the penalties for the violation of any fire regulation, and fix the compensation of firemen.

SEC. 27. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall have the power to pass ordinances to preserve the health of the said town, to prevent and remove nuisances, to prevent the introduction of contagious diseases within the said town, and within two miles of the same, and may regulate the places for manufacturing soap and candles, the erection of slaughter houses, tanneries, canning factories and distilleries, and wherever other offensive trade is carried on. That whenever any nuisances dangerous to the health shall exist in any street or alley of the said town, and it shall be found necessary in order to remove the same to have such street or alley paved, they may order the same paved, and the amount expended in paying the same, and the expense of collecting the same from the owner of the property fronting thereon, in proportion to the amount expended in front of the said property, by suit against the owner; and the amount expended in such pavement, and the collection thereof, shall become a lien upon the property chargeable therewith.