

Water supply. SEC. 33. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall have power to grant unto the Washington and Chesapeake Railway Company, the right to establish or cause to be established such reservoirs, dams, tanks and other means of storing water as may be necessary to supply said town with water, and to authorize the laying of such mains, pipes or other conduits as may be required in constructing the same, and regulate the charge for the same.

Electric lights. SEC. 34. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall have power to grant unto the Washington and Chesapeake Railway Company, the right to establish or cause to be established, electric lights within the said town of Chesapeake Beach, for the purpose of lighting the streets and parks thereof, and for the supply of lights to individual property owners, and to fix rates therefor; and the said commissioners the authorized to pass such ordinances as may be necessary for are maintenance and conduct of such street lights.

Bathing houses. SEC. 35. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall have power to grant to the Washington and Chesapeake Beach Railway Company the right to construct, or cause to be constructed, such bathing houses along the bay shore within said town, as the said company may find necessary for the accommodation of the public, and to fix the charges and regulations governing the same.

Piers, docks, wharves, etc. SEC. 36. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall have full power to grant unto the said Washington and Chesapeake Beach Railway Company the right to construct, or cause to be constructed, such piers, docks, wharves, breakwaters, dykes and other improvements as it may from time to time deem necessary or convenient for the accommodation of the public for amusement or business purposes, and to fix such charges and regulations as said company may deem proper.

Intoxicating liquors. License. SEC. 37. And be it enacted, That no person shall sell, offer for sale, or keep for sale, within said town of Chesapeake Beach, any intoxicating liquors, beer or cider, except as hereinafter provided. The said commissioners shall, on the first day of May, each year, cause to be issued to the Chesapeake Beach Hotel Company as many licenses as the said company may require, and for such purposes shall certify to the clerk of the Circuit Court of Calvert county the number of licenses required, with the name of said company, and stating the location for which each license is desired. The clerk of said