

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That on or before the first day of March in each year, said corporation shall file with the Insurance Department of this State, a statement of its affairs, showing its condition on the thirty-first day of December next preceding such statement, but shall not be required to make the deposit with the Insurance Commissioner mentioned in section 128 of said article 23 of the Code of Public General Laws, as amended by the Act of 1892, chapter 488. Shall file a statement of its affairs.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the time of the existence of said corporation shall be unlimited. Corporate existence unlimited.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. Effective.;

Approved February 14th, 1894.

CHAPTER 23.

AN ACT to repeal Chapter one hundred and fifty-three, passed at the January Session of the General Assembly, eighteen hundred and ninety, entitled an Act to protect the owners of ducking ponds of Dorchester County, and to re-enact the same so as to read as follows:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That chapter one hundred and fifty-three, passed at the January session of the General Assembly, eighteen hundred and ninety, entitled an act to protect the owners of ducking ponds of Dorchester county, be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows: Repeal.

SEC. 2. Be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to shoot or trap wild fowl, muskrats or other game, or to set snares or nets or fish the same in any pond, creek or marsh, which is private property of any citizen of Dorchester county, without the consent of the owner; provided, previous notice in writing has been posted in two conspicuous places near such ponds, creek or marsh, or advertisement of such notice in a newspaper printed in Cambridge. Unlawful to trap wild fowl on private property.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That any person or persons violating the provisions of the preceding section shall be liable to Penalty.