

Bank of Snow Hill in the name of the said "Court House and Jail Building Fund," subject to the order of said County Commissioners, upon the receipt of which said certificate the said bonds shall be delivered to the lender or lenders of said money.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That to redeem said bonds, the County Commissioners of Worcester county shall annually levy upon the assessable property of said county, beginning with their next levy after the passage of this act; that is to say, the levy of the year eighteen hundred and ninety-four, a tax sufficient to pay all interest which shall fall due on said bonds, on the first day of each and every January and June hereafter, until all said bonds are paid, the interest to be levied annually, to be only such an amount as will be due on all said bonds outstanding on the following January after the levy, and shall further levy at the same time the interest aforesaid as provided for, a sum sufficient to pay the principal of such bond as may mature on the first day of January next after their said levy, and the said levy shall be designated as the court house and jail fund. Redemption of bonds.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the said County Commissioners are authorized, should they deem it necessary, to employ a capable architect at a reasonable compensation, to prepare plans and specifications for said court house and jail, and superintend the building of the same, under their general supervision; and on the completion of said court house and jail, the said County Commissioners shall make a full, clear and explicit statement, giving a detailed account of the cost of said court house and jail, the name of every person to whom money was paid in erecting said buildings, and such statement shall be kept in a separate book made specially for the purpose, which book shall be known as the "Court House and Jail Building Book," and shall be one of the public records of said County Commissioner's office. May employ architect.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the said county Commissioners shall have power to cause the said court house and jail to be erected and to contract for the building of the same with one or more persons, and may invite sealed proposals for building said court house and jail, reserving to themselves the right to accept or reject any bid or bids, which for any reason should not be satisfactory to them; and good and sufficient bond or bonds, with securities to be approved by the said Contracts for building.
