

Repeal. Laws, title "Crimes and Punishments," sub-title "Perjury," to follow section 226, and to be designated as section 226 A, and that sections 227 and 228 of said article, be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments to read as to the three several sections as follows :

Perjury. 226 A. Any person who shall make oath or affirmation to two contradictory statements, each of them in one of the cases enumerated in section 226 of this article, and in either case shall make such oath or affirmation wilfully and falsely, shall be deemed guilty of perjury ; and to sustain an indictment under this section, it shall be sufficient to allege and prove that one of the said two contradictory statements is or must be false and willful without specifying which one.

Subornation of perjury. 227. Any person who shall procure another to make a false oath or affirmation in any of the cases embraced in the two preceding sections, shall be deemed guilty of subornation of perjury.

Penalty. 228. Every person who shall be convicted of "perjury" or "subornation of perjury," shall be sentenced to imprisonment in the jail or penitentiary for not more than ten years.

Approved April 6th, 1894.

CHAPTER 263.

AN ACT to repeal and re enact with an amendment, Section two hundred and sixty-four of Article twenty-three of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Corporations," sub-title "Dissolution of Corporations."

Preamble. WHEREAS, It has been determined by the Court of Appeals, that corporations are not subject to the insolvent system, and, therefore, the initial expression in said section is to such an extent ambiguous as to interfere with the usefulness of the section.

Repeal. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section two hundred and sixty-four of article twenty-three of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Corporations," sub-title "Dissolution of Corporations," be and the