

CHAPTER 28.

AN ACT for the protection of the residents and tax-paying merchants of the City of Cambridge, in Dorchester County, against non-resident merchants, in the business of what is called "fire slaughter or forced sales."

License necessary. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall not be lawful for any individual, co-partnership or firm, who are non-residents of the city of Cambridge, in Dorchester county, to open a room or place of business, for the purpose of selling goods, wares and merchandise, at auction, or by any temporary expedients at variance with the regular licensed system of mercantile business in the said city, without first applying to the clerk of the Circuit Court of the said county, for a special auction license to sell in the said city, and to pay therefor the sum of three hundred dollars, the said license to be non-transferable.

Penalty. SEC. 2. Be it enacted, That any individual, co-partnership or firm, who are non-residents as aforesaid, who shall attempt to violate the provisions of the preceding section, in not having procured a license as required therein, shall be subject to a penalty of one hundred dollars for each offence, one-half to the use of the State, and the other half to the corporation of the city of Cambridge.

Effective. SEC. 3. Be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved February 16th, 1894.

CHAPTER 29.

AN ACT to repeal Chapter five hundred and eleven of the Acts of eighteen hundred and ninety-two, entitled an Act requiring the County Commissioners of Queen Anne's County, on application of the Board of School Commissioners of Queen Anne's County, to levy for and furnish to said School Commissioners, the money necessary to erect and equip a High School building in Centreville, in said County, and procure a proper site for same.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That chapter five hundred and eleven, acts of the
