

fail to appear or provide some one in his stead, or pay the sum of one dollar on or before the day of his appearance, unless for good cause excused by bailiff, the said person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before the police justice, shall be fined not less than two dollars and stand committed to jail for two days or until the fine and costs are paid.

Power of police justice. 91. For the enforcement of the town ordinances, the police justice shall have all the power of ordering arrests and summoning witnesses, trying cases, inflicting fines and punishments that are now vested in them by law, and shall be entitled to demand and receive the same fees as in other criminal cases. He shall be furnished with a copy of the charter and ordinances of the town, and shall keep a separate docket for corporation cases, submit the same when requested and render quarterly statements, and pay over all the fines to the treasurer.

Right of appeal. 91 A. From any judgment rendered by the police justice in enforcement of the ordinances of the town, an appeal shall lie, by the party aggrieved, to the Circuit Court for Somerset county; provided, the appeal is taken within thirty days after the rendering of such judgment; but no appeal shall stay process or execution upon judgment, unless good and sufficient bond be given for payment of fine and all costs in case judgment be affirmed.

Codification of ordinances. 100 A. Said commissioners may provide by ordinance for the codification of all ordinances which have been or may hereafter be passed by it, and for the printing of such codification thereof; and the printed copy thereof issued by authority and under the sanction of said body shall be legal evidence of the passage of said ordinances and the contents thereof in any court of law or equity in this State.

Ordinances in force. 100 B. All ordinances heretofore passed by the commissioners of Crisfield and now in force, and not in conflict with the provisions of this sub-title, are continued in force until the same are repealed or modified. All laws or parts of laws inconsistent with this act, if any, are hereby repealed; but nothing herein shall in any wise abate or defeat any civil or criminal proceedings before the Circuit Court or any justice of the peace of Somerset county, or before the board of street commissioners of said town with respect to opening, straightening or widening any of the streets, lanes or by-ways of said town, or the confiscation for public uses; or approval, rejection
