

Tax to pay principal and interest SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That said Mayor and Alderman of Frederick shall have full power and authority, and are hereby required to levy all necessary taxes upon the property within the taxable limits of said corporation, for the payment of the interest on the bonds hereby authorized to be issued, and for the payment of the principal thereof at the maturity thereof, and shall create a sinking fund for that purpose, and levy the necessary taxes therefor; provided receipts from water rents are not sufficient for these purposes.

Effective. SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 6th, 1894.

CHAPTER 324.

AN ACT entitled a supplement to an Act passed at the Session of 1890, Chapter six hundred and sixteen, and entitled an Act to incorporate the Berlin and Lovettsville Bridge Company, for the purpose of constructing and owning a bridge at Berlin, Frederick County, Maryland, across the Potomac river, to Loudon County, Virginia.

Preamble. WHEREAS, The General Assembly of the State of Virginia, at the session of 1889-1890, passed an act with the title above mentioned, which was approved on the third day of February, 1890, and in pursuance of the said act of Assembly, two corporations were created, one of Maryland and one of Virginia, with the same name, and they have constructed the bridge which they were authorized to build; and whereas, to aid in the construction a mortgage was made by the Berlin and Lovettsville Bridge Company upon the property acquired by both companies, their incomes, etc., or was intended to be made, to the Fidelity and Deposit Company of Maryland, to secure an issue of bonds and coupons for interest, made in the said corporate name; and,

Preamble. WHEREAS, On account of the identity in name and object, the fact was lost sight of that they are separate in law, and both corporations desire to consolidate and become one corporation, and that the consolidated corporation may do whatever acts may be necessary to make good in law the said bonds and
