

asylum in Allegany county, for confinement and treatment therein, by order of the Criminal Court for Baltimore city, as authorized by chapter 123 of the acts of Assembly of 1890; and

WHEREAS, Said insane prisoners were received at said asylum and supported and treated therein, and, under chapter 248 of the acts of Assembly of 1892, the board of managers of said asylum were paid in full for the same for the years 1890 and 1891, by the State Treasurer; and Preamble.

WHEREAS, The time of sentence in the penitentiary of Ambrose Stack expired October 11, 1893, and he, being restored in mind, was discharged from said asylum; and Preamble.

WHEREAS, The sentence of said Conley was also expired, but he is still insane and is a violent and dangerous lunatic, so that he cannot be safely discharged from said asylum; and Preamble.

WHEREAS, Said lunatic was a resident or denizen of Baltimore city at the time he was arrested and sentenced to the penitentiary; therefore, Preamble.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Comptroller of the treasury be and he is hereby authorized and directed to issue his warrant upon the Treasurer of the State for the sum of seven hundred and ten dollars, payable out of the funds in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, in favor of the board of managers of Sylvan Retreat Asylum of Allegany county, to pay their claim for the support and treatment of said insane convicts for the years 1892 and 1893, and for the support of said Conley for the year 1894 down to the first day of March, 1894; and the said Treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to pay said sum of money, said claim having been duly approved by said treasury officials, according to section 52 of article three of the Constitution. To pay claim of Sylvan Retreat Asylum.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the sheriff of Baltimore city be and he is hereby directed to receive said John R. Conley at once from said Sylvan Retreat Asylum of Allegany county to the jail of Baltimore city, thence to be hereafter dealt with by the authorities of said city according to law. Duty of sheriff.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. Effective.

Approved April 6th, 1894.