CHAPTER 329.

AN ACT to add two sections to Article eleven of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, title "Banks," to be designated as Sections seven A and seven B.

New sections. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That two additional sections, designated sections seven A and seven B, be added to article eleven of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, title "Banks," to follow after section seven, and to read as follows:

List of depositors not heard from for 20 years. 7 A. In the month of October, in the year 1895, and in every second year thereafter, the treasurer of every savings bank or savings institution in the State of Maryland, shall deliver to the Comptroller a written statement, sworn to by him or by the president of such savings bank, containing the name and amount standing to his or her credit of every depositor who shall not have made any deposit therein or withdrawn any money upon their accounts for the period of twenty years next prior to the first day of the preceding September; provided, that this section shall not apply to the deposit made by any person known to the said treasurer to be living. The Comptroller shall communicate the statements which shall be so delivered to him to the General Assembly in his next report.

Penalty. 7 B. Any treasurer of any savings bank in the State of Maryland, who shall fail or neglect to comply with the provisions of the preceding section, shall be subject to a fine of five hundred dollars for each failure or neglect, to be recovered by indictment in the Circuit Court for the county where the savings bank may be located, or in the Criminal Court of Baltimore city, as the case may be.
