

CHAPTER 393.

AN ACT to refund to George R. Goldsborough a certain sum of money erroneously paid into the Treasury.

WHEREAS, George R. Goldsborough, as executor of Eliza Goldsborough, deceased, did pay the collateral inheritance tax upon a mortgage of five thousand dollars to the register of wills for Talbot county, to wit: one hundred and twenty-five dollars, which said amount was paid into the State Treasury by the said register of wills for Talbot county, on the thirty-first day of December, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, less his commissions of five per centum on the same, viz: one hundred and eighteen dollars and seventy-five cents; afterwards by a decision of the Court of Appeals of Maryland, in the case of Martin vs. Goldsborough, it was determined that the mortgage of five thousand dollars, as aforesaid, formed no part of the assets of the estate of the said Eliza Goldsborough; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Comptroller of the Treasury be and he is hereby authorized and directed to draw his warrant upon the Treasurer in favor of George R. Goldsborough, for the sum of one hundred and eighteen dollars and seventy-five cents, the refunding of said amount having been recommended by the treasury officials.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 6th, 1894.

CHAPTER 394.

AN ACT to appropriate a sum of money to pay Daniel H. Staley, for services rendered the State at the request of the Comptroller, in recovering a sum of money due the State.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the sum of one hundred dollars be and the same is hereby appropriated to pay Daniel H. Staley, for services rendered in securing the payment into the Treasury of Maryland, certain moneys due to the State; and the Comp-
