

the clerk's office of said county. As treasurer he shall receive all money that shall be collected by the said collectors of county taxes, and all other money due the county, and shall pay out all money so received, on orders of the County Commissioners; and he shall open an account with each collector, in a book kept for that purpose, charging him with the whole amount of county assessment in his district, and such other money as may be due therefrom to the county, and crediting him by amounts paid in, and he shall demand prompt payments by the collectors, make settlements with them, and report to the commissioners such collectors as may be in default; provided, that in settlements made with collectors, he shall not allow any delinquencies and insolvencies without an order for such allowance by the commissioners. He shall also keep an account in a proper book, between himself and the commissioners, and charge himself with moneys received from all sources, naming them, and credit himself with the amounts paid out, and keep on file the orders of the commissioners as vouchers for the correctness of his disbursements; and he shall keep the commissioners' office open from nine A. M. to four P. M. each day, Sundays and holidays excepted; and his compensation as clerk and treasurer shall be one thousand dollars per year.

Duties as treasurer.

Salary.

109. Before entering upon his duties as clerk or treasurer he shall give bond, in the sum prescribed in section 108, to the County Commissioners, conditioned as therein prescribed; and before entering upon his duties he shall give bond to the State in the penalty of twenty thousand dollars, with at least two good securities, conditioned that he will truly and faithfully discharge, execute and perform all and singular the duties required of him, or which may be required by the Constitution and laws of this State; which said bond shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the Circuit Court for said county, and a certified copy of which shall be sufficient evidence in a suit against him; and his books shall be at all times open to the inspection of the County Commissioners.

Bonds.

110. The clerk and county treasurer, in each and every year, at the time of the publication of the county levy, shall publish in some newspaper printed in Wicomico county a clear and succinct statement of the finances of the county, showing how much has been received by said treasurer, and how much paid out and the balance in hand, also how much has been collected by each collector, and how much is due from each of said collectors, the said statement to be published three times.

To publish financial statement
of county.