

Funkstown, and by that name may sue and be sued, and may have and use a common seal.

245 A. The taxable limits of the town of Funkstown are hereby declared as follows: Beginning at a point marked "A" in the north abutment of the stone bridge across Antietam creek, on the turnpike leading from Funkstown to Hagerstown, said mark being at the east side of said abutment, and running eastwardly up said Antietam creek with its meanderings on the north bank thereof, a distance of eighteen hundred and three feet, to a planted stone; thence south forty-three degrees, east four hundred and seventy feet to the north side of road leading from Funkstown to Chewsville; thence south twelve degrees west, ten hundred and seventy-one feet to the north side of the turnpike leading from Funkstown to Beaver creek; thence south, seventy-two degrees east, two hundred feet; thence south nineteen and a fourth degree west, three hundred and eighty-seven feet; thence north, sixty-nine and three-fourths degrees west, two hundred and thirty-five feet; thence south, thirteen and a-half degrees west, eleven hundred and fifty-one feet to the west side of the turnpike leading from Funkstown to Boonboro; thence south, eighty-six and a-half degrees west, two hundred and thirty-eight feet to a rock marked "X," standing on the south side of Antietam creek; thence crossing said creek north thirty degrees west one hundred feet to the north bank of said creek; thence up said creek with its meanderings on the bank thereof to the place of beginning; provided, however, that for sanitary and police purposes, the Burgess and Commissioners of Funkstown shall have and exercise full power and control for a distance of one-quarter of a mile in every direction from said corporate limits.

249. If during the year for which they were elected, the burgess, the assistant burgess, or any of the commissioners shall die, resign, remove from said town or be otherwise disqualified or displaced, the remaining members of said board shall appoint successors to fill such vacancies.

254. The burgess and commissioners may make such by-laws and ordinances as they may deem expedient for the comfort, health, convenience and general prosperity of the said town, as well as all regulations for the security of property and good government of said municipality; and to this end it shall have power to institute a fire department; to prevent, remove and