

prisoners so sentenced to hard labor, in addition to the sum of twenty-five hundred dollars above mentioned.

SEC. 139 A. It shall be the duty of the sheriff to keep a correct and full statement or schedule of all persons committed to the jail, showing the length of time and the offense for which they are committed, and the name of the officer by whom committed, which statement or schedule, together with all books, papers and commitments kept by him pertaining to prisoners in the jail, shall at all times be open to the inspection of the County Commissioners or any of them; and at the first meeting of the County Commissioners in each month, the sheriff shall make to them, under oath, a full and complete report of the names and descriptions of all persons confined in the jail, with a statement of the length of time and offense for which they are committed, and the name of the officer by whom committed; and for any neglect of the sheriff to comply with any provision of this section, he shall be subject, upon indictment and conviction, to a fine of not less than five hundred dollars.

Duties of sheriff.

SEC. 139 B. It shall be the duty of the County Commissioners to furnish all supplies and provisions necessary, in their judgment, for the support and maintenance of all persons committed to the jail, and all fuel and lights needed for said jail, and feed for not more than two horses for the use of the sheriff, in case the said sheriff shall keep so many, and to deliver the same free of cost to the sheriff, at such times and in such quantities as in the judgment of said County Commissioners may seem best.

Duties of County
Commissioners.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed in so far as they relate to Carroll county, and that this act shall take effect from the first day of June, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-four.

Effective.

Approved April 6th, 1894.