

said commissioners shall have power to reject such reports until the same shall have been made in a satisfactory manner to them; and upon the failure of said trustees to make correct and satisfactory reports, and for any improper conduct as such trustee or trustees, the said County Commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to dismiss any or all of said trustees, and to fill such vacancies.

Meetings. 10. They, or a majority of them, shall meet together at the almshouse in said county, on the first Monday in February, yearly, and at such other times as they shall deem necessary; Overseer. and appoint a fit person to be overseer of the almshouse, and such other proper officers and servants as may seem necessary to them.

Salary. 11. They shall pay said overseer a salary not exceeding the sum of two hundred and twenty-five dollars per annum, and so pro rata during his continuance in office.

Power of removal. 12. They may remove at their pleasure said overseer, and all other officers and servants appointed by them, and appoint others in their places.

Bond of overseer. 13. They shall require the said overseer to enter into a bond, with sufficient sureties, payable to the said trustees, in the penalty of five hundred dollars, conditional for the faithful performance of the duties of his office.

Meetings. 14. The trustees, or a majority of them, shall meet at the almshouse, at least once in each month, or oftener, if deemed By-laws. necessary by them, and shall make such rules and by-laws as they, or a majority, shall think convenient and necessary for the direction, government and support of the almshouse, and the employment of all poor persons that be committed thereto.

List of inmates. 15. The overseer shall keep a regular list of all persons committed to said almshouse.

Reports of overseer. 16. He shall keep and return to the said trustees, upon oath, to be administered by one of them, monthly reports, in writing, of all the stock, farming utensils and other things remaining in his hands, together with a statement of the crops and other articles made on the farm or estate of said almshouse, and of the expenses and charges attending the maintenance and support of the inmates thereof, and of all money received by him from the sale of the produce from said farm or estate, and