

maintenance of water works of sufficient capacity to supply the reasonable demands of the citizens of said town and any manufactures that may be established therein, with water; and also of mains and fire plugs in and along the streets of said town, as a protection against fire.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That said Mayor and Council shall have power and authority, and are hereby required to levy all necessary taxes upon the property within the taxable limits of said corporation, not exceeding the limits of said taxation provided for in the charter of said town, for the payment of the interest on the bonds hereby authorized to be issued, as well as for the payment of said bonds at maturity, and shall create a sinking fund for that purpose and levy the necessary taxes therefor, not exceeding the provisions of the charter of said town, which sinking fund shall be invested annually in some safe securities to be selected by said Mayor and Council; provided, that the question of issuing the said bonds shall, at a special election to be held during the month of May, in the year 1894, for which election the Mayor and Council shall provide by ordinance, be submitted to the qualified voters of said town; if a majority of the votes cast at said election favor the execution of this law, the Mayor and Council may proceed to issue said bonds; but if a majority of the votes cast be against the execution of this law, then it shall be null and void.

Tax to pay principal and interest.

Question to be voted on.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the Mayor and Council of Brunswick shall have power to pass all ordinances necessary for the preservation and protection of said water works, and to regulate by ordinance the charges for pipes, hydrants and other supplies of water furnished to citizens of said town.

May pass ordinances.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Effective.

Approved April 6th, 1894.

CHAPTER 452.

AN ACT to incorporate the Baltimore Centennial Association;

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Lloyd L. Jackson, Robert C. Davidson, Lewis N. Hopkins, John E. Hurst, Charles Goldsborough, Wm. J.