

Game law. 4. No person shall at any time wilfully destroy, in Wicomico county, any egg or nest of any of the birds mentioned in sections one and two, under a penalty of five dollars for each and every violation of this section; and the possession of any eggs by any person as above mentioned, shall be prima facie evidence of the guilt of the person possessing the same.

Jurisdiction of justices of the peace. 5. The several justices of the peace in and for said county, are given full and sufficient authority and jurisdiction to hear, try and determine all cases which may arise under the provisions of the four preceding sections; and the said justices of the peace shall impose the fines provided for in said sections, together with all the costs of the prosecution, upon all persons who shall be adjudged guilty of a violation of any of the provisions of said sections; and if any person so convicted shall fail or refuse to pay any fines or costs so imposed, the said justice of the peace shall immediately commit him to the county jail, to be there confined until said fines and costs are paid, or are discharged by due process of law; all said fines shall go to the informer upon whose evidence the conviction shall be obtained.

Duty of constables and bailiffs. 6. It shall be the duty of all the bailiffs and constables in the several towns and election districts in said county, to arrest forthwith all persons whom they may see violating any of the provisions of any of the preceding sections, or to whom warrants are issued, and to take such offender or offenders before some justice of the peace in said county, to be dealt with according to law.

Unlawful to hunt upon private property without permission. SEC. A. Every person who shall, upon any pretense whatever, come to hunt, with dog or gun, net, trap or device of any kind for killing or catching birds or game of any kind, upon the lands of another in Wicomico county, without leave or license from the owner or possessor thereof, first had and obtained, shall, for every such offense, upon conviction before a justice of the peace of the said county, or Circuit Court thereof, be fined not less than five dollars nor exceeding $25, for each and every offense, and stand committed until fine and costs are paid. All fines shall be paid over to the school commissioners, for the use of the public schools of Wicomico county.

Hunting at night. SEC. B. Any person who shall, upon any pretense whatever, come to hunt upon the lands of another in Wicomico county, in the night time, except for hunting coons and opossums, and
